2020 Rountree-Sikes Scholarship

The South Carolina Vending Association (SCVA), founded in 1972, is a not-for-profit trade association whose member companies are businesses that provide vending, food and coffee services to office buildings, hospitals, schools and manufacturing facilities.

Two $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to employees, or spouses or children of an employee, who currently work for a SCVA member company (owner / operator). These scholarships may be used for higher education, technical, or vocational training following high school. Awards will be based on several factors including financial need, academics and extracurricular activities.
