

Working for You
Investment in your livelihood and future!

As a member of the South Carolina Vending Association (SCVA), you can benefit from activities designed to keep you informed on industry issues that affect your business.

Legislative Representation - The SCVA contracts with a registered lobbyist to represent our members and interests at the State House. As a member of the SCVA, you can stay informed on significant legislative and regulatory issues affecting the vending and food service industry. It is important to be well-versed about these key issues because it provides customer credibility as to the legitimacy of your operating business.

Annual Winter Conference - SCVA members receive reduced rates to the Annual Winter Conference is held in Charleston, SC in January. Attendees have the opportunity to learn about new products and services in the industry, and learn “best practices” from your peers. The in-depth educational programs will give you insights and practical skills for improving your business both professionally and personally. Members are provided hotel rebates, lunch vouchers at popular restaurants in the historic districts, meals, receptions and entertainment.

Networking and Professional Development - SCVA members support and help one another in reaching their professional goals by sharing ideas, offering advice, volunteering and brainstorming with others who are looking to advance and learn. Members use their peers as sounding boards and make trustworthy, reliable friendships at the same time. As a member, you may find a mentor to help you with your professional needs, or you may be in a position to become a mentor to someone else.

Connections and Publicity - SCVA updates the membership on changes and developments within the industry via electronic alerts. Members have access to the membership directory and have direct contact with the association office for a variety of resources. SCVA keeps you informed about industry trends, state and national legislative issues, best practices, and more.

Scholarship Program - The SCVA Rountree-Sikes Scholarship is awarded to an employee, or child of an employee, who currently works for a SCVA member company based on several factors including financial need, GPA and extracurricular activities. Up to three (3) $1,000 scholarships may be awarded each year.
